

Who are you?

Which modules tools do you use?

Using which modules naming scheme?

How do you build and install software?

Do you collaborate with other sites?

Do you automate software builds?

Are module files automagically generated?

Providing multiple builds per application?

Do you test correctness of software builds?

Do you evaluate the software performance?

Do you monitor software performance?

Do you keep track of build metadata?

Do you keep an archive of software sources?

